

Astro Gold for macOS is the latest in reliable and elegant astrology software for the Mac computer. This new software app has a similar feature set and design to the much loved iOS app of the same name and has been developed by the highly successful creators of the much-loved Solar Fire software for PC.

Along with high precision calculations you can also read professional astrological interpretations. Astro Gold for Mac features Natal, Transit, Solar Return, Lunar Return, Progression and Synastry interpretations.

The app is clean, clear and precise, and uses the latest Swiss Ephemeris and ACS Atlas files. If you love astrology and want a professional-looking astrology app then look no further. If you are a user of the Solar Fire® PC program then you can easily exchange chart files with it as well as with your Astro Gold for iPhone and iPad.

What's New! – September 2017

We have added a major new module for Astro Locality Mapping, with zoomable and pannable maps, popup interpretations and even complete relocation reports!

Astro Gold's maps come in two styles – satellite and map. The choice is yours. You also have a selectable display of country and major city names, and if needed you can use the angular distance measuring tool by using mouse click and drag.

Astrological features include the ability to display MC/IC/Rise/Set and Local Direction lines, using either Zodiacal or In Mundo option. Astro Gold features pop-up interpretations for all line annotations and PDF relocation interpretations report for any user-selected location.

Once you have settled on your map and location then you have a variety of image share options – a nifty selection for today’s social media.

What’s New! – March 2017

Astro Gold now has the exciting new addition of Professional Reports. These report writers are optional add-ons, and can be purchased from within Astro Gold. A license purchased for any report type allows you to freely generate an unlimited number of reports of that type. They include timed and untimed Birth Chart and Predictive reports, a Synastry Report, a Child report, and others. Professional Report purchase prices in your currency may be found here.

These are carefully-crafted, beautifully illustrated astrology report writers for your Mac. They are perfect for any astrology enthusiast wanting to create high-quality astrological reports on their Mac. As one enthusiastic customer says “the Professional Reports are an excellent new feature for Astro Gold. These reports are not only highly informative via giving much food for reflection to both the professional and the student, but the Report ‘magnet’ is in the fact that these Reports are both crisp and clear in presentation AND exceptionally well written! What a beautiful combination of work and talent! Congratulations!”

Report types that are available include:

- Birth Reports
- Predictive Reports (One Year)
- Relationship Reports
- Child Reports (Natal)
- Birthday Reports (Solar Return)
- Pet Reports

You can print, save and email each report generated. You can also read more about each of the available Professional Report types, as well as obtaining free samples, within the app.

Demo Download

If you aren't ready to buy straight away, you can download a demo version of the app below. Note that the demo has a number of limitations, which are completely removed when you register the app by buying a license, either below or via the app's built-in Register... option. The main limitations are:

- You can only cast new natal charts for dates in the 1930s, and you cannot save any.
- You cannot step a chart forward in time beyond the current date.
- The list of recently used charts is deleted each time you exit the app.
